AT THE MASONIC TEMPLE.

Parker Lodge No. 5, of the Benevolent Order of Buffaloes. Give Their World's Fair Ball.

Last Monday night, Parker Lodge No. 5, of the Benevolent Order of Buffaloes, gave their unique World's Fair ball. It was a grand success, financially and otherwise. The costumes were elaborate. The dancing Mrs. Arnett Campbell, of 2635 Lucas avenue, wore the most beautiful costume of the evening. As she entered the ball room every eye was turned to her. She and several of her friends, among whom was a friend from Chicago, indulged in a few dances. These were followed by the grand march. It was led by Prof. John Freeman and Mrs. Campbell. Among those present were: Mrs. Clay and daughter, Mrs. Watts of Pine street, Mrs. G. Holt and her brother-in-law, Mr. C. Graham, a judge of dancing gave The Palladium man a few hints on the best dancers. Others were: Mrs. Sallie Calvert, Mrs. Frank Byrd, Mr. Chas. Narcisse, R. B. Stevall, Mr. Ashley (the P. O. gentleman), Mr. A. Russell, Mr. J. Clark, of 1251 Sacramento. We beheld the dashing Miss Jennie Jones, Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Fannie Jackson, of 1608 Chestnut. They were quite attractive. Also Mrs. Mary Lucas, of 2331 Market, Mrs. Bell Ukle, of 2624 Lawton, and Mrs. Leon King, of 2341 Market. They danced well and were dressed attractively.

As we sat gathering pointers one beer jerker said: "Sir, we would like to have that chair for the guests at the tables." I turned and said: "Surely, you don't want me to get up out of this chair when I have been here for the past two hours." He said nothing, but sneaked off. These youngsters must not disturb The Palladium man. We noticed two fresh dudes with their hats on smoking cigarettes, and disturbing the ladies. Prof. Lucky ordered them off of the floor. They ought to have been kicked off.

The Buckingham.

After finding that we are not able to give our first ball, March 25, we wish to say to our many friends that we regret the announcement we had published in The Palladium not long since.

R. A. TURNER, President.
W. A. MORRIS, Secretary.

AT BRIDGETON.

Wm. W. Perry's Sermon at the Baptist Church Last Sunday.

Last Sunday Rev. W. W. Perry, pastor of the First Baptist church at Bridgeton, delivered an excellent sermon, of which the following is a synopsis:

Being a minister and servant of God, I try to use my best endeavors to select the most suitable passages of Scripture from which to admonish the sinner of what God requires of him, and to edify the church. God has done, and is yet doing, so much for mankind that He demands of him some kind of service, if it is only to acknowledge His supremacy. "Be still and know that I am God." The text reads: "Come, let us build up the walls of Jerusalem, that we be no more a reproach. Nehemiah 2-17. The text sets forth—

First—A spirit of deep interest.

Second—Unity.

Third—Industry and faith in God. First, to achieve any great success, one must become interested in the thing that is to be accomplished. For instance, a child is sent to school to be taught by its teacher how to read, write and cipher, and before the teacher can make very much impression on the mind of that pupil, that boy or girl must first become interested in the studies before very much good can be accomplished. And so it is in every course of life, that a person must become deeply concerned in any assumption in order to accomplish the thing desired. On hearing the calamities of the Jews, whom were left in Judea, after the captivity, how the walls were thrown down to the ground, how that the gates were burned with fire, how that the city was pillaged and men, women and children were murdered and their bodies lay in the roads. Nehemiah wept and shed tears out of commiseration of the calamities of his countrymen, and looking up to Heaven, he said: "How long, O Lord, wilt Thou overlook our nation, while it suffers so great miseries, and while we are made the prey and spoil of all men." See what interest was manifested upon his part, for he sought the assistance of others, saying: "Come, let us build up the walls of Jerusalem."

Second thought "Unity." Unity is the strength of every institution, and more especially the church of God, because its aim is beyond the chilly stream of Jordan. The Psalms of David read: "Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity." The earth on which we live, is not a solid of itself, for it is made up of very small particles, which are so united together that they form what is termed land. So the great power of Unity is demonstrated in the make-up of the earth. Nehemiah manifested great faith in God, and relied on His promises. Full of energy and patience, and despite the enemies who did everything they could to hinder the work, Nehemiah and his fellowmen should shoulder to shoulder and completed the great task, for they had a mind to work.

PLAN TO CARE FOR NEGRO VISITORS TO WORLD'S FAIR.

Egyptian Club Will Have Cafe, Theater and Music Pavilion on Delmar Boulevard.

A $140,827 contract was let yesterday to the E. C. Gerhart Construction Co. by the Egyptian club, an organization formed for the entertainment of colored visitors to the World's fair, for the erection of club buildings. The club has leased from the Goodfellow Investment Co., 523 feet fronting on the north side of Delmar boulevard, between Goodfellow and Hamilton avenues. Work on the buildings is to be completed by June 1.

The officers of the Egyptian club are: Prof. Arthur D. Langston, president; Dr. S. P. Stafford, Lorenzo W. Harris, vice-presidents; Dr. D. P. Roberts, treasurer; Albert Burgess, secretary. The business offices are on North Tenth street. Mr. Harris is manager.

The object of the Egyptian club is to provide colored Americans visiting the World's fair with refreshments, meals, facilities of barber shop, reading room, bowling alleys, shower baths, etc. The club buildings will consist of a cafe and restaurant, with reading rooms, barber shop, bowling alleys and billiard rooms, a music pavilion and a theater building of fire proof construction, having an auditorium capable of seating 1,391 persons comfortably. The building will present a very attractive appearance, both from within and without, being faced with red stock brick, with white terra cotta trimmings.

The dimensions of the cafe and restaurant buildings are 88 feet front by 121 feet depth. The height is 40 feet and the style of architecture of the pure Greek ionic order. The seating capacity of restaurant will be 1,200 persons in twenty-four hours. Spacious porches surround the entire building. All buildings will be lighted by electricity.—Globe-Democrat.

Pickett's Headache Powders give instant relief. 2501 Lawton avenue.

PULLMAN BOYS.

Jack Patterson is on the Iron Mountain to Poplar Bluff.

J. H. Smith is on the Hot Springs special. He is looking well—yes, O. K.

Jim Marsh lost his wife. He is much cast down. We sympathize with him.

L. E. E. Jordan is on the Iron Mountain. He thinks that he is the whole show. (Other pebbles on the beach.)

The Pullman boys and The Palladium staff are all O. K. They keep us informed, and we inform the public.

Sam Martin is on the I. C. to New Orleans, La. He is looking well. He says the weather in very warm in that city.

C. C. Carraway is on the Clover Leaf. He is a fine fellow. He lives in Toledo, O. He is much pleased with our city.

E. O. Brockman, of 2345 Market street, is on the Burlington, and is considered one of Pullman's best porters.

W. O. Hicks is a jolly good fellow, and the girls think that he is the only pebble on the beach. But ah! you just keep your eyes on J. W. Hicks, girls, for he is all O. K.

Kid Morgan can be found when in the city at the Alceve. He likes his high "yellows." Now go slow, kid. Switch some time, and go to the Marble Heart. Everything is O. K.

We see that Brad Nichol still sports the bull pup on Market street. When are you going to give him a fight. Well, Brad, is all right at that price. Go to it, Nichols.

Mr. H. R. Reese, of 3116 LaSalle street, Chicago, is very popular with the traveling public. He can be found when in the city at Lowery & Moran's cafe, 2321 Market street. He is a jolly, good fellow.

Clint Wilkins, formerly of New York city, and manager of the Little Savoy, is with Hugh B. White, at the Alceve bar and garden. Mr. Wilkins is very popular in New York city. He spent the winter in Hot Springs.

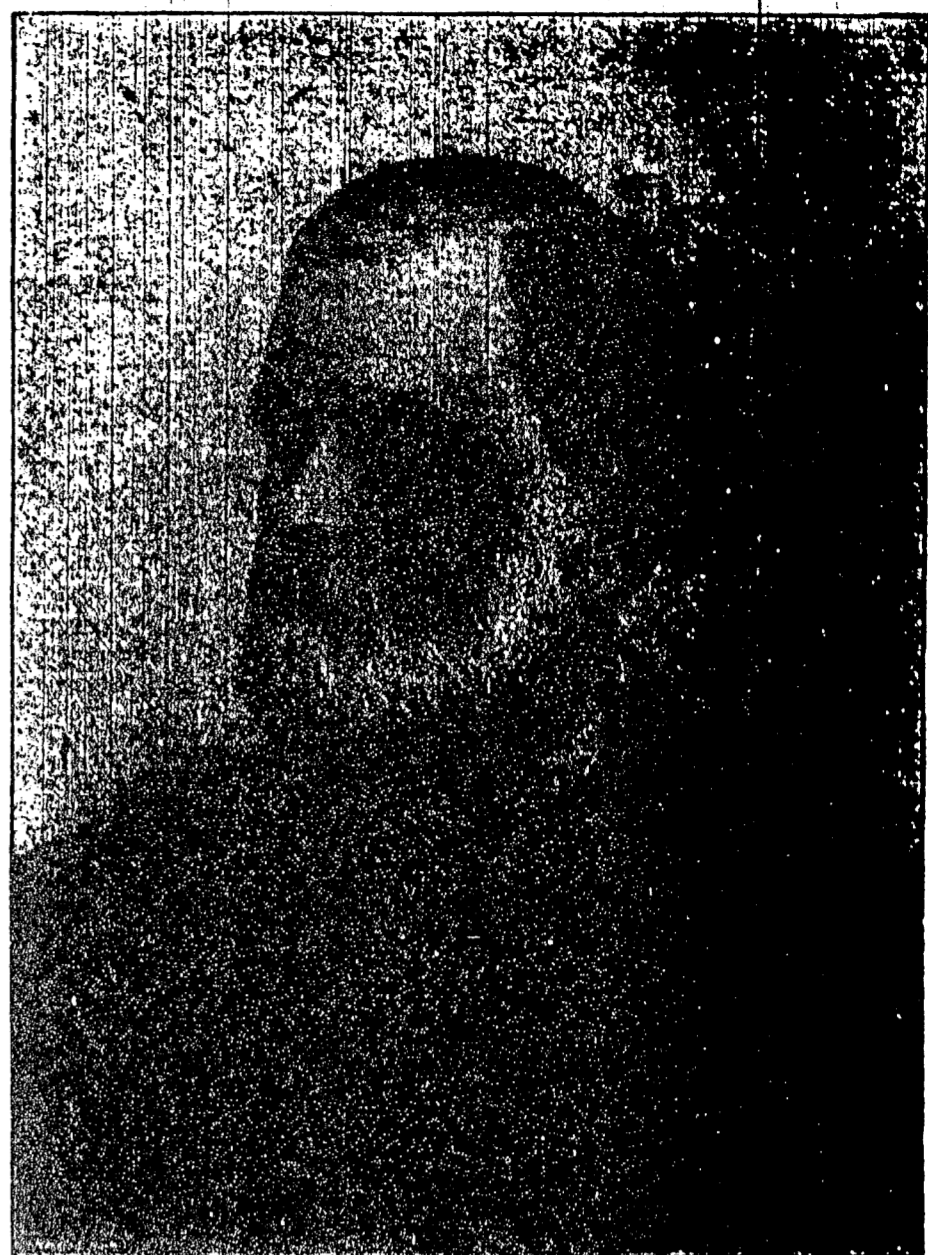

The Alceve bar and garden is to be fitted up and put in condition to make it the finest bar and garden in the city. It will be something grand, so as to accommodate our many friends and visitors. Hugh B. White, proprietor; Clint Wilkins, manager.

G. W. Allen is one of our old porters. He has been with the Pullman company for 28 years, and he looks as if he is good for 28 more. Now young porters go to Mr. Allen and have a talk with him, and he will give you some pointers how to handle the traveling public. He is O. K.

W. A. Ford is in St. Louis. His home is in New Orleans, La. Mr. Ford is one of the hustling kind. He is studying to be a doctor. He has two or three lots, and a barber shop in New Orleans. He has been with the Pullman company a number of years. He is a worthy man.

James Muldon, waiter at the Union station, was at the Buffaloes' ball, Monday night. We observed that he had too many girls at one time. She passed out, and then "he followed" on a full run. They all thought that he was training for a foot ball game. Oh! boys, we sympathize with him, as many of the boys have been there too. So go slow.

Mrs. Parks Dillon, of 2748 Walnut street, died last week. She left five children, the youngest four weeks old. Mr. Dillon is one of Pullman's best men. Mr. H. L. Curtis, superintendent of the Pullman Car System at Jersey City, N. J., writes Mr. Dillon a very sympathetic letter in his deep hour of grief. Thus a dear mother has gone and left her children to the care of a loving husband. We trust that he will find a helping hand to care for his dear, motherless children.

CHAUNCEY I. FILLEY.

CITY NEWS.

Notes and News Concerning Our People—Weekly Record of Social Events, Deaths, Marriages and Births—Written Especially for St. Louis Palladium.

Miss Hazel McKinney is up again, after a few days' illness.

Dear Reader, it takes money to publish this paper.

FOR RENT—A furnished room, for gentlemen only, at 1920 Wash street. Mrs. Permelia Hynes.

Mr. Wm. Harris, of Maffit avenue, was seriously hurt by a transit car. He is on the road to recovery.

Mrs. Mary Slaughter, who has been sick for three weeks, is improving very slowly.

FOR RENT—Furnished or unfurnished rooms at 326 South Montrose avenue.

Mr. Allen Tillman, of 4010 Finney avenue, is quite ill, and is under the care of Dr. W. P. T. Jones.

$1 will be paid for two copies of the Palladium of March 28, 1903. Must be clean and in good order.

Mrs. Mattie Robinson, of 2828 Adams street, will entertain the Ladies' N. D. S. club, Thursday, March 24, at 2 p. m.

Mrs. M. A. Lawrence will leave on the 21st or 22d for a week's visit with relatives at her old home, Edwardsville, Ill.

Mrs. Susan Thompson, of 2635 Lucas avenue, is sick. From all indications she has something that will lead her out to Northwest St. Louis.

Remember if you do not take The Palladium by the month, you can get one every Saturday or Sunday from Mr. Henry Hamilton, 2613 North Pendleton avenue.

Miss Nellie Hyatt, the youngest daughter of Mrs. Hyatt, of 4026 Lucky street, has been quite sick. She is a very lovely girl, with quite a sweet disposition.

We have secured 32 new subscribers for our paper since March 1. Many of them speak in glorious terms of it. We give them a paper first-class in every respect.

Wait for the grand entertainment given by the U. K. club, at Masonic temple, Tenth and Market streets, Monday, March 28. Music by the World's Fair band.

Madame M'Nairde Moore, of Indianapolis, Ind., is in our midst. She indeed stands at the head of her profession—palmist and phrenologist. You must go and consult her at 12 South Fifteenth street.

Miss Pearl Jones, of 4726 Ashland avenue, married Mr. Clarence Harvey, of Cottage avenue. They had a very quiet wedding, and a very few friends were present. We wish them success.

Mr. John H. Campbell, of Bridgeton, is very low with an attack of pneumonia.

Mrs. Sylvania Harris, of 2212 Walnut street, has been sick for several weeks. We wish for her early recovery.

Mrs. Leona Lee entertained the La Coterie Franchise at her home Tuesday evening. They had a very pleasant time. She served lunch after the meeting, and the young men present said they thought her cooking would surely win her a husband. If you want a wife, boys, its up to you. Keep your eye on Miss Lee.

Madame M'Nairde-Moore, the palmist and phrenologist. Call on her, at No. 12 South Fifteenth street. She stands at the head of her class.

The Rev. William Jones, of Higginsville, Mo., has been conducting a series of meetings at the Fifth Baptist church, with a wonderful success in gaining 21 converts for baptism, which will take place on Easter Sunday. He preached his closing, or farewell sermon, last Sunday night, from Ezekiel 1, 16, "A wheel in a wheel." The sermon was a soul-stirring one, for all who were present enjoyed it.

Mrs. Rosie Curtis, of 707 North Fourteenth street, gave a birthday reception March 10, which was nicely conducted, and highly appreciated by her many friends. Music was rendered by the famous "200" quartette—Willie Bush, James Lee, Willie Skidmore, J. Walker. They will furnish the best of music and song for parties and balls at reasonable rates. No. 1225 Market street.

Mrs. G. W. Sanford, of 4154 Fairfax avenue, tendered a birthday party to her son, Lorin Sanford, March 14. The hours were from 2 p. m. to 6 p. m. Those present: Fredericka Brooks, Eve Kibbie, Jesse Anderson, Alma Braxton, Willie Braxton, Emily Braxton, James Tyler, Corilla Johnson, Coral Johnson, Othello Walker, James Harper, Arthur Harper, Anston Cowin, Jesse Herndon, Erston Tate.

The Lyceum Sketch Club.

To Editor of The Palladium: We desire to state that the Lyceum Sketch club has no connection whatever with the Y. M. C. A. entertainment to be given next month at the Odeon. We make this explanation in answer to many inquiries that have come to us.

THE LYCEUM SKETCH CLUB.

Jas. W. Grant, president.
R. A. Hudlin, vice-president.
Ambrose A. Clark, secretary.
John B. Vashon, treasurer.
Will S. Grant, business manager.

A Would-be Lawyer.

A few days ago a man was on trial in the criminal court. In the cross-examination of a woman, the would-be lawyer's questions were so unmanly and rough that the judge stopped him, and told the Negro lawyer that if the lawyer could not modify his language, that he could not and would not allow a woman to be insulted by him. Hence, the Negro's client got twenty years in the penitentiary. So, if you want to go to the penitentiary, get that Negro lawyer to attempt to defend you and you are sure for five, ten, fifteen or twenty years in the penitentiary.
